- Glue or tape

Directions: Type the "Color Flowers" poem. Create a cover sheet to the poem with the title "Color Flowers." Glue or tape the cover sheet and a few flowers onto the first piece of construction paper. On the first page of the poem book, glue or tape the first verse onto construction paper. It mentions red flowers. On that page, glue or tape three of the Flowers Colorful Cut-Outs. Glue or tape three coordinating flowers for each of the next two verses. On the final verse, where it talks about boys and girls, add many different colored flowers to the page. You may want to add students' names or pictures to the flowers on the last page.

Poem:

We are such pretty flowers
Growing in Mary's garden bed.
When rain comes down,
Up come the flowers red.

We are flowers that have grown
In the warmth of the sun.
Mary tends us gently,
Up come the yellow ones.

We are flowers in the spring,
Glistening in the morning dew.
When the breeze blows soft and warm,
Up come the flowers blue.

We are flowers in the garden,
We are Mary's pride and joy.
But if you look more closely,
You'll see we're girls and boys!
